

"Beetlebaum's" in 1953, still stands.

Herald 29 June 1971

SCENIC RAILROAD NARROW GAUGE train made its first official passenger run over the weekend between Antonio, Colorado, and Chama, New Mexico. The line was purchased last year by the states of Colorado and New Mexico. The inaugural run carries 200 passengers but took 7½ hours to make the 64-mile trip.